KEYNOTE SPEAKER

President's Celebration

Do It Scared: "Why You Should Make Fear Your Friend"
Stephen Groner, MS, CCC-SLP - "SLP Stephen"

Stephen started stuttering when he was three and he received life-changing speech therapy when he was 17 that allowed him to speak easily and enjoyably for the first time. He now shares his stuttering knowledge and tips online as @slp.stephen and is the creator of innovative online courses to help make stuttering therapy simpler and less scary for harried SLPs at slpstephen.com. He received his bachelors and masters from Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee and has given presentations about stuttering to thousands of SLPs across the country. Known for being upbeat, engaging, and super practical, Stephen is someone you want to see if you want some help treating stuttering or professional life in general.

President's Message

Andrea Richards

Hello!

I am so excited to reveal the theme, highlights and key information regarding our 65th MSHA Annual Convention this April 11-14, 2024 at Tan Tar-A Conference Center in Osage Beach! Our theme MSHA Momentum: Resilience, Reconnection, Reinvention is a testament to MSHA's resilience in the face of recent challenges, commitment to reconnection within the speech and hearing community and dedication to the process of reinvention. I am so proud of our hard working and forward thinking 2024 Convention Planning Team! They have succeeded in providing a full and diverse program of professional learning opportunities with creative spins on some of our recurring sessions. Additional highlights include renowned speakers, innovative topics, exciting additions for our student attendees—including a lower fee, and so much more!

I ask you to share this information with any non MSHA member peer (SLP, AUD, SLPA). Members can join at any time to receive the convention fee discount. Working together we are stronger! See you in April!

Andrea Richards, MEd CCC SLP
MSHA President

Student Opportunities

Sessions of Particular Interest to Student Members

The 65th Annual MSHA Convention will offer presentations specifically geared for the student audience. Presentations cover important and relevant topics for current students and provide an opportunity for networking.

Student Lounge

Come to the Exhibit Hall and visit the Student Lounge! Relax, converse and share with fellow students.

MSHA Student Research Awards

Talented students will present their research in both technical and poster presentation formats. Student Research Awards will once again be offered in each of the following categories:

- Outstanding Undergraduate Student Poster Presentation
- Outstanding Undergraduate Student Stand and Deliver Presentation
- Outstanding Graduate Student Poster Presentation
- Outstanding Graduate Student Stand and Deliver Presentation

Student Activities at the Convention

MSHA is providing unique opportunities for student attendees at the Annual Convention. The following are opportunities that should not be missed!

- Outstanding Cultural Competence Research Poster
- Outstanding Cultural Competence Technical Session

Annual Quest for the Cup Competition

What would the MSHA Convention be without the Annual Quest for the Cup Competition? Start planning your university's team now. Enter and compete to win.

The Quest for the Cup will kick-off with the Quest Tailgate Party. Quest team members and fans are encouraged to attend the Tailgate Party to socialize and generate spirit prior to the event – wear your university apparel!

Lightning Rounds (formerly know as Round Robin Sessions) - Friday, 6:30 pm - 7:30 pm:

There are 8 concurrent sessions in a room during this time to provide the opportunity for the members to collaborate and share ideas. The presenters will deliver a 20-minute presentation at their table and offer a 4-5-minute quick Q&A time. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn about professional updates on hot topics in the field of speech-language pathology and audiology.
